DUNN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

The Failures a Few Less Than forthe Same Month Last Year.

NEW YORK, September 14.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade to-morrow will say:

From many quarters of the West and Southeast a better distribution of mer-chandise is reported in jobbing and retail circles. Prices of staple commodities are higher for the week, hoisted by the sharp ducts there is little change, though steady ses of business at the current level is satisfactory.

Cotton closed last week at the highest piles in ten years, and a large short interest was awaiting reaction. Instead there came news of the disaster in Texas and sensational reports that a million bales had been destroyed. At the New York Exchange trading was far in excess of all contracts records and prices rose by bounds. Exchange trading was far in excess of all previous records and prices rose by bounds. Subsequently there were less exaggerated reports from the South, but the market failed to respond, and middling uplands advanced to 11 cents. The rise in the raw material caused sharp advances in cotton goods. Buyers who have been delaying for weeks are anxious to secure liberal

In 1884, she was driving in Central Park and a carriage in which Stevens and Mrs. Stevens were taking a drive, was run away with. Mrs. Stevens was slightly hurt and Miss Simonson offered all the help she could. She afterward called on Mrs. Stevens, who was staying at the Windsor Hotel. Miss Simonson told Mr. Rosenthal that Mr. Stevens was a retired commission merchant, and that he and his wife went to Europe in 1896. She added that Mrs. Stevens died a few months ago.

After receiving the good news, Miss Simonson parcelled her furniture out to the other families living in the house, and disappeared. She did not try to prevent the execution of the dispossess writ.

(By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Two coroner's juries who had inquired into the deaths of the victims of the Hoboken dock fire returned their verdicts to-night. The first inquest embraced all of the victims who perished by drowning, and its primary object was to inquire into the alleged inhumanity of tug-boat captains. From the testimony of about twenty witnesses the jury concluded that the stories were well founded.

In the second inquest, embracing the burned victims, the verdict was that the origin of the fire was unknown to the jury.

AMUSEMENTS.

Th entire receipts of the matinee at the Casino will be donated by Manager Wells to the Galveston sufferers' fund. The bill is an excellent one and would have drawn a great big house at any rate, but Manager Wells is very anxious that the banner matinee of the season will be the result of the count up of the receipts this afternoon as he wishes to be able to send a good check to the fund.

The bill next week is a strong one headed by Crimmins and Gore, the eccentric comedy artists. Adelma Rontina, the New York Casino favorite; Bimm Bomm Brrr, the novelty musical artists, and other are on the programme.

Marie Corelli's strong story was well maintain: in the play at the Academy last night by W. A. Brady's admirable

The only thing that tended to mar the pleasure of the evening was the disorderly conduct of the gallery gods.

Again at matinee to-day and to-night.

Hanna and Other Leaders Fear | Democratic Leaders Confer in Strike on Republican Chances.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Sept. 14.-The anthracite coal miners' strike called last night by President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers' Association, was a subject of serious consideration at Republican National headquarters to-day. Eenator Hanna and Vice-Chairman Payne held a long conference with the resident members of the Advisory Board as to the best steps to take, that a political color be not given the industrial difficulty in Pennsylvania evening. This makes $1,250 so far sent. The roal work of soliciting subscriptions in this cause has just begun and Norfolk will probably give generously. Mr. Carey Butt left here a month ago meaning to work in the cotton trade at Galveston.

Telegrams directed to him remain unanswered and his wife, who is here, fears ne is among the dead. Property Transfers.

Two Thousand Victims. (By Associated Press.)

HOUSTON, TEX., September 14.—The Post to-day prints a list of 2.701 names of the Galveston dead, compiled from various sources, but believed to be authentic. There were hundreds of bodies burned, buried at sea and in the sand, of which no identification was possible; there were other hundreds who were buried on the beach of the mainland, few of whom have been identified. There are many bodies still in the ruins of Galveston, and scattered along the beach of the mainland and in the marshes, where they were thrown

To Import Laborers.

(By Associated Press.)

AUSTIN, TEXAS, September 14.-From early morning until far in the afternoon Governor Sayers to-day was in conference with relief committees from various points along the storm-swept coast. As a result of this conference, it was decided that General Scurry should be left in absolute command in the city, which is still to be considered under military rule. It was decided also that instead of looking to the laboring people of Galveston for work in this emergency, that an importation of outside labor to the number of two thousand should be obtained, while the ing men of Galveston were given an op-portunity of looking after their own prop-erty and homes without having to give time to the city at large.
